Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20.-Indianapolis pulled the game out of the fire in the ninth inning to-day, after it apparently had been lost. In the tenth the visitors won it by batting out two runs. But the unexpected happened. Louisville started in and found Williams's delivery for three more runs and the victory rested with the home team. The game was a long one, full of good, bad and indifferent plays. Errors had a lot to dressed in a white silk dress and lying in | do with the big score, and while the pitching was at times good, there were batting streaks which no pitching could stop. Both > teams played about the same kind of a game, both at the bat and in the field. The game will go down in history as having been played after being declared forfeited. No regular umpire appeared to officiate. Jack Sheridan, who had been employed on previous occasions as a substitute, was called on to take charge. He appeared on the field without comment or apparent objection, but when he took his position behind the bat not an Indianapolis player left the bench. Manager Watkins refused to accept him. Sheridan, after an effort was made to induce Indianapolis to send Hogriever to the bat, declared the game forfeited to Louisville 9 to 0. The Indianapolis players started off the field. when the crowd sent up a howl and wanted a game. The gate receipts were worth Managers Watkins and Tebeau, with the result that it was agreed that Watkins should select the umpire rather than lose the money. He chose Spies and Heydon > and the game proceeded without a protest. Eleven errors were made in the game. Of hits there were twenty-five, of which Indianapolis got eleven. Louisville started out with a patched up team. Miller, of the "Three I" League, was down to play short, but he showed up so badly in practice that he was benched and Ganzel was put there, Gannon going to first and Kerwin to right. Clymer had a bad hand and he put Flaherty in center. Flaherty sulked a good deal, and when he had struck out twice when all the others were hitting he was taken out and Clymer went into the game. O'Brien hurt his finger sliding to second base, and the injury was the direct cause of his one Kerwin's single, Bonner's out and Ganzel's single gave Louisville one run in the first, and four were rolled up in the second by a bunch of five singles helped by a sacrifice. FARMER, N. Y., July 20.-The most disastrous flood that has visited this portion of Seneca county occurred this afternoon. Wheat in the shock, hay on the ground once cocked up, gardens, roads, and in some places bridges are washed out. At the Lehigh Valley depot, on level ground, the ballasting was washed from under the track in several places. The damage to the town of Covert will amount to thousands of dollars.

Stolen attempted to prevent the game. The warrant sworn out by members of the league was placed in the hands of Sheriff Brower for the arrest of the two teams. When he arrived on the grounds an angry crowd surrounded and hustled him violently. His revolver was taken away from him. He succeeded in arresting four players and took them to a justice's office, where they were placed under bond.

A number of city pastors were at the justice's office, and when they left friends of the players threatened and jostled them. A stone was thrown at the Rev. C. M. Shepperd, of the Methodist Church, striking a companion and knocking him down. Mr. Shepperd was chased to his home. Later, alleging that his life had been threatened and the church property was in danger, Mr. Shepperd applied to the mayor for a police guard for himself and the church property and it was promised.
